

I live in Bozeman and am deployed at Gethsemane Episcopal Church in Manhattan, MT.

Archdeacon Roxanne and I are married. I (we) have a daughter, Melissa, son-in-law, Howard and 2 grandchildren, Sylvie, age 6, and Robin, age 3 who live in Christchurch, New Zealand. I have 3 brothers and she has 2 sisters who live in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Hawaii.

My primary ministries include:

- *teaching a computer class to the inmates at the Gallatin County Detention Center, Bozeman.

- *co-facilitating a group called Survivors, recovering drug and alcohol addicts who have been incarcerated and are looking to make positive changes in their lives.

- *coordinating the St. James team that volunteers at the Community Cafe once a month

- *volunteering with the St. James team that staffs the showers at the warming center

I was ordained on May 18, 2014 at St. Peter's Cathedral, Helena and assist the Dean and Archdeacon with the School for Deacons.
