

I live in Missoula and I am married to Robert Chaney. We have two sons, Rob and Ross, and four grandchildren.

I am working at Holy Spirit Parish. I do the liturgical work of a Deacon at Holy Spirit which includes training the Lay Ministers, pastoral visiting, taking part and sometimes leading study groups, and heading the seasonal decorating of the church.

I am also on the Social Concerns Committee, mentor the EFM group and I am the director of the Deacon School.

My work and life inform and mold my diaconal formation.
