

I live in Bozeman and am deployed at St. James, Bozeman.

Deacon Connie Campbell-Pearson and I are married. I (we) have a daughter, Melissa, son-in-law, Howard and 2 grandchildren, Sylvie, age 6, and Robin, age 3 who live in Christchurch, New Zealand. Connie has 3 brothers and I have 2 sisters who live in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Hawaii.

My primary ministries include:

- *ministering to the inmates at the Gallatin County Detention Center, Bozeman.

- *facilitating a group called Survivors, recovering drug and alcohol addicts who have been incarcerated and are looking to make positive changes in their lives.

- *implementing a re-entry program, FRESH START, for those coming out of incarceration in Gallatin County.

I was ordained on May 8, 1999 at St. James, Bozeman and appointed the Archdeacon of the Diocese by Bishop C. Franklin Brookhart, Jr., in December 2003.
